Description

Hanky Panky (www.hankypanky.ca) parties are an entertaining and educational way for people to get to know sex toys and other assorted adult novelties. They carry a wide array of sumptuous body products, books and games to satisfy every customer's taste!

Products will be available for purchase, so come in a randy mood!

How it works:

10% of the night's sales under $750

15% of night's sales over $750, under $1000

20% of night's sales over $1000!

Raffle tickets will also be sold, $5 (or 3 for $10) for a chance to win a prize!

Money will be raised for cancer research and patient services through the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.

Drinks and nibbles: $10 (if you wish to partake) and the rest goes to charity!

Sorry boys, this night is girls only. Feel free to invite your girl-friends.
